HAMMOND ROTARY CHARTERED
MAY 1, 1920

Meeting Notes From AUGUST 26, 2008

For the first time in many years, we had a presentation from the Downtown Hammond Council. An organization with a rich history of over 50 years, incorporated in 1954, the DHC is changing to attract more visibility through public events instead of just a business/lunch club networking group. A variety of reasonable membership rates offer a chance to network, but also an opportunity to build greater interest in the downtown area through beautification, fundraising, and socializing through themed gatherings.

Research shows that a healthy and vibrant downtown boosts economic health and quality of life in a community. Specifically, it creates jobs, incubates businesses, reduces sprawl, protects property values, and increases the communities options for goods and services. A healthy downtown is a symbol of community pride and history.

President, Karen Maravilla and Board Director Raymundo Garcia informed our group not only about the changes taking place, but also their upcoming events Bizarre Bazaar, September 20, 2008 held in Downtown Hammond, of course. Join them from 10:30-5:00 p.m. In its third year, this festival offers something for everyone--pie baking contest, adult bean bag tournament, canine costume contest, children's chess tournament, Stuffapalooza Community Yard Sale, scavenger hunt, wacky hat contest, rod and custom car show, arts and crafts vendors, kids games and activities. dance troupes, a hair cut-a thon to benefit, Books, Brushes & Bands for Education, and the EL Taco Real Salsa Eating Contest. Come and listen to the Northwest Indiana Symphony at 11:00 am and enjoy lunch for purchase through the many food vendors who will attend. The event is free and open to the public. Visit www.downtownhammond.org for more details. Sponsorships of many levels are still available. All proceeds from Bizarre Bazaar will benefit the beautification fund so that we can continue to purchase flowers and plantings for Hohman Avenue along the main corridor. Businesses donating prizes with a value of $50 or more will be listed on our website. Businesses who contribute $100 or more will be linked to our website until June 2009. Businesses donating $100 or more will be listed in the symphony program.

Also mark your calendars for November 22 for the 25th anniversary of The Christmas Story. With a Ralphie Look-A-Like contest to watching the movie at the Towle Theater, plan to spend the afternoon gearing up for the holidays with the official lighting of the trees in Downtown Hammond. Join us for hot chocolate and cookies and a stroll down memory lane. Leg Lamps are currently for sale for $125 each. $35 from each purchase is considered a charitable contribution. Please call 937-0111 or 512-4298 with any questions or for sponsorship information. Volunteers are needed for both events.

Thank you to Michelle Golden for taking these notes, and to Jim McNabney for providing the attendance figures.
