HAMMOND ROTARY CHARTERED
MAY 1, 1920

Meeting Notes From July 19, 2011

President Jim McNabney opened the meeting by leading the membership in God Bless America and the Pledge of Allegiance, Mary Kaczka started recitation of the 4-Way Test, and Reverend Bassam Abdallah offered another thoughtful prayer.

President Jim then presented Nancy Machnikowski a Community Service award for the numerous activities in which she participates, and Jim then thanked Secretary Chuck Sanger for including a photograph in last week's Transmission. Jim also informed the members that the Board had implemented a new $5 fine on anyone whose cell phone goes off during a meeting.

Jeff Oesterle reminded everyone to sign up for our annual joint picnic with the Crown Point Rotary Club to be held on Tuesday, August 9th in Cedar Lake. Hans Enderlin announced that he had 1,000 tickets left for the golf outing raffle and urged everyone to get busy selling. Rick Schumacher informed the members that anyone interested in obtaining a Rotary license plate should access the Columbus Sunrise Rotary Club web site and follow the easy instructions.

President Jim then read a letter from St. Anthony Franciscan in Crown Point in which the hospital honored Past President George Glendening with a donation to the Club. Jim Buchanan also informed the members that he had received a phone call from the Glendening family about a memorial donation which will be forthcoming for our dictionary project.

Reverend Abdallah then successfully stumped all 4 tables with geography questions on cities of the world, and happy bucks were provided by: Hans Enderlin for his cousin's birthday; Mike Repay for his recent eagle; Nancy Machnikowski for the new prognosis that her chronic cough is treatable; Jeff Oesterle that his mother-in-law is out of the hospital; Jim Prisby on surviving the heat; and Stephanie Madison on finally remembering to bring her Rotary pin.

Jim Prisby then conducted the current events challenge for a grand prize of $246. Nancy Machnikowski correctly answered the question but drew the ace of spades instead of the joker from the remaining 35 cards. Nancy generously donated her $10 prize to the water project.

Linda Randolph then introduced Tiffany Phillips, Mentoring Program Assistant for the Communities in Schools Program, a not-for-profit corporation operating at East Chicago Central High School. CIS is the largest dropout prevention organization in the U.S., and it identifies and mobilizes existing community resources and fosters cooperative partnerships for the benefit of students and families. Assistant Joanne White also spoke and indicated that they are aggressively looking for mentors to serve as coaches who will encourage students to stay in school and pursue higher education. They are seeking a commitment of 1 hour per week for 2 years, and after the meeting member Stephanie Madison and prospective member Dave May met with the presenters to gather more information.

Thank you to Jim Prisby for the Transmission notes, and to Chuck Sanger for the attendance figures and photo.
