Meeting Notes From November 2, 2010

President Charles Sanger rang the Rotary bell & the club sang "My Country 'tis of Thee," after which Mark Goldsmith led the "Pledge," Rev. Abdallah offered prayer, and Jim Prisby "The 4 -Way Test."

President Chuck Sanger won the "Current Events Challenge" answering "Who is our current Assistant Governor nominee?" with the name "Judy Walker." Chuck didn't draw the Joker, however, and donated his $10.00 to the Water Fund. Four guests were then introduced: Ed Salata and Lynette McDermott from the YMCA, and prospective members Eric Roldan and Corey Frank.

Hans Enderlin announced that Mary Kaczka had exceeded her monetary goal for the NYC Marathon with a total amount collected or $3,497.00. Andy Brennan announced that Jim Buchanan is home and improving well since his surgery. Lisa woodruff announced that maps to Andy and Sarah Brennan's home for "Dollars for Dictionaries" were on the tables. She also announced that she is in the play "Grey Gardens" in Chesterton.

Regarding the Membership Drive, Jim McNabney left sample letters on the tables in case members aren't able to call or visit prospective members, whose names were on the badge table.

Rocharda Moore-Morris announced that Hammond High School's Interact Club is having a food drive and a community dinner over thanksgiving. Chuck Sanger announced a Board meeting today. He also answered Corey Frank's question about "Veterans' Day," that was listed incorrectly in our calendar.

Bassam Abdallah conducted two extractions. The second one was for the Water Fund. Nobody answered any of the questions correctly ($$$$!) We collected late bucks from Michelle Golden, Mary Kaczka and Linda Randolph, who also got a pin penalty (more $$$!). Bassam gave a happy buck because political commercials were over, and Hans Enderlin had a happy buck that Mary Kaczka made her goal.

After singing "Happy Birthday" to Lisa Woodruff, we heard from Jim Prisby that the golf outing made $4,833. Jim then gave a check for $1,213 from Hammond Rotary to

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

November 16 Classification Talk, Mike Repay
November 23 The Coming Collapse, Jim Prisby
November 30 Gaza & Hamas, Bassam Abdallah
December 7 Pearl Harbor Day, Larry Meyers
December 14 Holiday Luncheon

Ed Salata, who promptly turned it over to our own Rick Schumacher, YMCA President.

Lisa Woodruff then introduced Stephanie Madison, who presented her "classification" talk (even though she doesn't like public speaking). Stephanie, her husband Adam and two children, Skylar (8) and Mia (3) live in Whiting. Stephanie received her Organizational Management Degree from Calumet College and is a board member of the Carnegie Arts Center and the East Chicago Foundation; she is also secretary of Nathan Hale School PTO and works in finance.

A former employee of Harris Bank, Stephanie currently has a position with Teachers Credit Union, which has forty-two branches –four of them in Northwest Indiana. Since taking over Unicorp Credit Union, TCU has over 2 billion dollars in assets and is open to anyone who resides or works in Indiana. TCU offers everything that banks offer--and a full line of insurance products from "wedding" insurance (which covers everything from bad weather to a runaway bride) to pet insurance. Stephanie said that TCU's goal is to be positive force in the communities in which it serves.

Stephanie likes to read and go to community plays. She recently completed her first 5K run. (Are we witnessing another future Mary Kaczka here?)

Thank you to Lisa Woodruff for the attendance figures.
